SECOND EDITION, in which the maps first appeared.
- 55 ——— THIRD EDITION, enlarged by the Author, with a new and accurate map (folding), 8vo., original calf, rebacked, 1677 £5
Gage's is the first authentic account of New Spain and the West Indies written by an Englishman, and when published aroused great interest. In the dedication of the first edition to Lord Fairfax he points out the weakness of the Spanish Settlements. Cromwell is said to have caused the publication of the second edition to excite public opinion in favour of the Expedition, which he despatched against Hispaniola and Jamaica, with Gage as Chaplain. The latter died in Jamaica in 1656.
- 56 Hakluyt (Richard) The PRINCIPAL NAVIGATIONS, VOIAGES, TRAFFIQUES, and DISCOVERIES of the ENGLISH NATION, made by Sea or ouer Land, to the Remote and Farthest Distant Quarters of the Earth, black letter, 3 vols in 2, sm. folio, calf (rebacked), 1599-1600 £25
With the reprint of the voyage to Cadiz. Few leaves little stained or repaired.

This is a monumental work, containing a vast quantity of historical information dealing with the British West Indies brought to light from ancient deeds, records and registers. He deals fully, giving pedigrees, coats-of-arms, and brief biographies, with individuals and families who have played either leading or minor parts in the making of island history. The following will give some idea of the ground covered:—

BRITISH WEST INDIES IN GENERAL.

Monumental Inscriptions in England relating to West Indians; Parish Registers in the Record Office; W. Indian Deeds; Wills proved in the P.C.C., 1800-12; Hurricanes; Notes and Queries; W. Indian Bookplates.

BARBADOS.

Family Histories, Records, Deeds, Wills proved to 1800, Births, Deaths and Marriages, Church and Clergy.

JAMAICA.

Wills proved, 1700-1810; Records and Deeds; Indentures; Marriages and Deaths, &c.

The families and records of many other islands are also dealt with.

Each complete volume contains an exhaustive index. The illustrations (some of which are in colours) include reproductions of rare prints and views, and portraits of famous Governors, and others.

- 91 Oliver (V. L.) WEST INDIAN BOOKPLATES: being a First List of Plates relating to those Islands, front., roy. 8vo., wrappers (from "Caribbeana"), 1914 10s
Over 750 bookplates, coats-of-arms, and crests are fully described, and brief biographies of the owners are given. The compilation of this quantity of material must have involved a very large amount of research work.
As there is a complete index, the volume forms an invaluable reference book of the men and women who have been connected with the West Indies.
The following Islands are treated separately: Antigua, Barbados, Bermuda, Dominica, Grenada, Guadeloupe, Jamaica, Martinique, Montserrat, Nevis, St. Kitts, St. Croix, Trinidad, Virgin Is.; also British Guiana.

BEST EDITION, WITH THE IMPORTANT PLATES AND FOLDING MAP, which were not issued in the English edition. Both the Huth and Britwell Court Libraries had the English version, but only the Huth Collection had this edition, which realised £90 [in 1918]. Since then no copy has occurred for sale, and apart from the Huth copy, no other has occurred for over 30 years.

Our copy has the two blank leaves (not in the Huth copy), and is an extraordinarily FINE AND TALL COPY, measuring 7½ by 6½ in.
